

Furrows and Fields

I spent my life in furrows and fields
Working and tilling the land
Observing the beauties created
By God's almighty hand.

I have touched the richness of soil
I've born the wind and sun on my face
And I would choose this life and this land
Over any other place.

A life filled with crimson-dawned mornings
When I was up to greet the sky
Days spent with family and creation
All throughout my life.

I was blessed to experience each springtime
When raindrops have washed the earth clean
Where my efforts have grown into harvest
Fields bearing the lushness of green.
"And so my life must be no different
Just like the crops that I have grown
For I am also God's child and seed
That at harvest must come home"

- (Jilchristy Dee)

Frank was born in Spalding to Joseph and Augusta (nee Boese) Eberle on July 19, 1938. He attended Hat Creek Country School for 8 years. Frank then worked for his dad on the farm and other farmers in the area when they needed a helping hand. One winter he went to Edson, Alberta to work in a lumber camp; but his passion was the farm. He took over the farm in 1963 with his dad helping him.

They also raised pigs, cows, and chickens. That same year he met his life partner Judy Tonnies. They were married February 6, 1965 and have resided at the family farm ever since. They just celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary. Frank was a great outdoorsman; he enjoyed farming, hunting and fishing with many trophies on display. He loved when his grandchildren came to visit and would stay overnight especially because they were a great reason for an afternoon nap. He could build and fix anything. "If Frank could not fix it, it was broken." Frank continued farming with his son Dwight, helping him until Dwight took over full time, with Frank now being the helping hand. Even with his health deteriorating he still climbed up in the combine this past fall. In the hospital, Frank was still giving Dwight farming advice.

Frank will be sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his wife Judy (nee Tonnies) Eberle; their children: Sheila (Dave) Lefebvre and family Justin (Steph) and Jarvis; Dwight (Lori) Eberle and family Brittany and Travis; Tracy (Kent) Rueve and family Taylor, Bryce, Kalvin and Ethan; brother Ed (Lucille) Eberle of Humboldt; sister-in-law Adelaide Eberle of Edmonton; numerous nieces, nephews, extended family; and members of the Tonnies family. Frank was predeceased by his parents Joseph and Augusta (nee Boese) Eberle; brothers and sisters: Gary Eberle, Len (Lea) Eberle, Werner (Lillian) Eberle, Joe Eberle Jr., Else (Allan) Farncombe, Marga (Frank) Kager, Hilde Eberle, Nora (Hubert Bley) (Leo Harder), Edna (Arnie) Rediger; and parents-in-law William and Sophie Tonnies.
