

*A limb has fallen from our family tree.
We keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs ...
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you ...
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest ...
Remembering all, how I was truly blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small ...
Go on with your life, don't worry about the falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin ...
Until the day comes, we're together again."*

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Pauline was born on February 11, 1918, to Stefan and Mary (nee Holinaty) Wawryk on their farm in the Dana, SK area. This is where she grew up and attended school. Following completion of her Grade 12, Pauline trained as a hairdresser at Marvel Beauty School in Saskatoon. During WW II, she worked in Toronto, ON, at a soup and a munitions factory. Pauline then returned home to help her family on the farm. Back home in Dana, she met a dashing young man, Tony Galgan, whom she married in 1946. They began their life together on a farm west of Dana where they welcomed their first daughter Shirley. Seven years later, a second daughter, Gail was born, thus completing their family.

Eventually, Pauline and Tony moved into Dana where they purchased the hall, and continued to farm from town. Many happy times were held at the hall with dances, weddings, and family gatherings. Pauline helped take care of the livestock and also tended to a huge garden which included many kinds of flowers giving her great pleasure. After Tony's accidental death on June 19, 1964, Pauline sold the farm and worked at various jobs. She provided room and board for practicing and full-time teachers, worked at the Ursuline Convent in Bruno as part of the cleaning employees, cleaned and worked as a nurses' assistant at the Cudworth Nursing Home, and was an x-ray technician at the Cudworth Hospital. Pauline was also very active in the community. She was a member of the CWL, prepared the Dana church for Mass every Sunday, and was a caregiver for her parents. Pauline took great pride in her daughters, and helped a great deal when the grandchildren came along. She was delighted when each of her new great-grand-daughters arrived. They were her pride and joy. Pauline thoroughly enjoyed the times when other family members dropped by for visits and sleepovers. She was well-loved by her family and will be greatly missed by each of them.

Pauline is survived by her two daughters: Shirley Henderson, and Gail (Bernard) Huber; grandchildren: Laura (Bryan) Prefontaine, Lee (Shauna) Huber, and Blake (Sarah) Huber; and by her great-grandchildren: Kalli, McKenna, Hayden, Keira, and Kate. She was predeceased by her husband Anton "Tony" Galgan; son-in-law Ross Henderson; parents Stefan and Mary (Holinaty) Wawryk; her siblings and their spouses: Helen (Michael) Hrynewich, Michael (Rosie) Wawryk, Felix (Lena) Warick, Michaeline (Michael) Chilliak, Joseph (Emilie) Warick, and John (Marie/Elfrieda) Warick; and by-in-laws: Peter Galgan, Walter (Ina) Galgan, and Anne (Jack) Cherwinski.
