

We'll Never Say Goodbye

I cannot see you with my eyes
Or hear you with my ears.
But thoughts of you are with me still
And often dry my tears.

You whisper in the rustling leaves
That linger in the fall;
And in the gentle evening breeze,
I'm sure I hear you call.

A part of you remains with me
That none can take away.
It gives me strength to carry on
At dawning of new day.

I think of happy times we shared,
And then I softly sigh,
But this I know - we'll meet again
And never say goodbye.

-Larry Howland

Dave was born to Michael and Mary (nee Ettiene) Hartl on January 10, 1934, in Humboldt. He was raised on the farm near Marysburg, SK. Dave became a farm labourer at a young age. Throughout his 20s, he worked at various jobs, but always came back to the family farm. Dave set roots in Spalding, SK, where he met Hazel Tessmer in 1962. Three years later they were married in Marysburg. In 1969, Dave and Hazel's first son, Lyndon, was born. Dave continued to farm until 1974. At that time, he decided to change careers and go into the hotel business in Rose Valley. Their second son, Sheldon, was born in 1975. After a few years, Dave and Hazel sold the hotel in Rose Valley and moved to Watrous, SK, and bought the Manitou Hotel. In 1977, their daughter Leah was born, thus completing their family of five. Dave and Hazel sold the hotel in Watrous in 1985 and retired to Humboldt, where they continued to reside. During that time, Dave worked a variety of side jobs and enjoyed his hobbies, traveling, and watching his children and grandchildren grow up.

Dave leaves to mourn his passing his wife of 52 years, Hazel (nee Tessmer) Hartl of Humboldt, SK; his three children and three grandchildren: Lyndon Hartl of St. Gregor, SK; Sheldon Hartl (Katherine Leney) of Coquitlam, BC; and Leah (Scott) Palchinski of Cudworth, SK, and children, Kyle, Tyler and Cohen; his brother, George "Lee" Hartl of Spalding, SK; brothers-and-sisters-in-law: Earl (Joyce) Tessmer of Snowden, SK, and Ernie (Joan) Tessmer of Somme, SK; and by numerous nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his father, Michael Hartl (1940); mother, Mary (nee Ettiene) Hartl (1989); brother, Ed Hartl (2007); brother-in-law, Leland Tessmer (2014); and sister-in-law, Louise Hartl (2014).
