Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone

Into that gentle night

Grieve if you will, but not for long

Upon my soul's sweet flight

I am at peace, my soul's at rest

There is no need for tears

For with your love I was so blessed

For all those many years

There is no pain, I suffer not

The fear is now all gone

Put now these things out of your thoughts

In your memory, I live on

Remember not my fight for breath

Remember not the strife

Please do not dwell upon my death

But celebrate my life

Sleep in peace Mom.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Joan was born in Saltcoats, SK to Walter and Doris (nee Brimacombe)

Greenwood. They moved to Naramata, BC when she was 6 years old, and that's where she attended school. After her schooling she worked in a fruit packing house where she met Leo Hessdorfer. They were married on January 6, 1949 in Naramata and shortly after that they moved to St. Benedict where Joan lived until 2000. Joan moved to Evergreen Court in Cudworth and then to St. Michael's Haven and finally to Rosthern Hospital where she lived for the last two months. Joan worked numerous jobs within St. Benedict throughout the years. She loved gardening, flowers and enjoyed ceramics. Joan was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother.

Joan will be lovingly remembered by her children: Patrick (Maureen)

Hessdorfer, David (Joyce) Hessdorfer, Gale Hessdorfer (John Reid), Gerald

(Beth) Hessdorfer, Wayne (Diane) Hessdorfer; 11 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren; siblings: Reg (Darlene) Greenwood, Betty Peters and Marion (Charles) Salting; numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Joan was predeceased by her husband of 51 years Leo Hessdorfer; parents Walter and Doris (nee Brimacombe) Greenwood; and brother-in-law Louis Peters.
