

Farmers Prayer

Oh God, who designed and constructed this earth
Who programmed its systems
And assessed its worth
Who ordained the seasons,
The sun and the rain
And ordered the moon
To wax and wane,
Then authorized mankind
To have the domain
over beast and fowl
And tree and grain.
Now, Lord you've granted me
This tract of land
To help feed the world
By the toil of my hands
I need, Lord, your wisdom
As I try to do
An honest day's work
Dedicated to you.
I plead the protection
Of your loving arm
Watch over my family,
My friends and my farm

Tony was born to Joseph and Blontina (nee Still) Hiebert on September 16, 1933 in Humboldt, SK. Tony attended school at Deer Lake until Grade 8, and then attended HCI until Grade 10. At this time, he started working on the family farm and then went to the gold mines in the North West Territories during the winter months. During the summer months he ran an HD11 Cat and Scraper for the Saskatchewan Department of Highways. In 1960, Tony and his brothers formed a heavy equipment business and worked in many different provinces. In 1983, Tony and son, Brad, ventured out on their own and bought land in the Brooksby area, north of Melfort, which is still the family farm to this day. They also began their own heavy duty construction business. Tony married Ruth Lemmerich on June 18, 1960. They were blessed with four children, Shelly on June 16, 1961; Carolyn on July 7, 1963; Brad on November 2, 1965; and Marlene on June 28, 1967. Tony had a great connection to the land, whether growing grain, gardening or picking from his fruit trees. Tony believed that happiness was actually found from the simple things in life.

Tony will be lovingly remembered by his wife of 57 years, Ruth (nee Lemmerich) Hiebert; children: Shelly Le Franc; Carrie Hiebert (Glenn Mueller); Brad (Shelley) Hiebert and children Cole and Carter; and Marlene (Keith) Wilson and children Bryn and Kieran. Tony is also survived by two brothers: Ray (Marie) Hiebert and Harold Hiebert; two sisters: Margaret (Gordon) Lux and Loretta (Randy) Dobmeier; brother-in-law Gordon Lemmerich; sister-in-law Phylis Sinclair; and numerous nieces and nephews. Tony was predeceased by his parents Joseph and Blontina (nee Still) Hiebert; sisters: Lillian and Bernadette; brothers-in-law Richard Forer and Jim Sinclair; sister-in-law Adele Lemmerich; and son-in-law Camille Le Franc.
