CELEBRATION OF BRENDA'S LIFE:

Wednesday, July 18, 2018 - 7:00 p.m.

Bella Vista Inn (Winston-Salem Room), Humboldt, Saskatchewan

Brenda was born to Michael and Mary (nee Pomedli) Kolbeck in Humboldt on September 24, 1955, and grew up on the Kolbeck family farm west of Lake Lenore. After high school, she moved to Saskatoon, SK, where she earned a diploma in nursing and married the love of her life, Gary Kunz. The couple lived in Ottawa, ON, and then moved to Atikokan, ON, where Brenda worked as a registered nurse. They later moved to Humboldt where Brenda continued her nursing career and farmed with Gary. She loved literature and operated two bookstores in Humboldt, The Bookcase and Buy the Book. Brenda attended the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, earning a BA and MA in English. Her master's thesis, An Orgasm and an Atom, explores the role of play and performance in the work of Canadian author Margaret Sweatman. Brenda loved travelling with family and friends, and spending time at their cabin at McPhee Lake. Nothing gave Brenda more joy than spending time with her four grandchildren. She was the most amazing grandmother.

Brenda is survived by her husband Gary Kunz; their three children: Sarah Kunz (Joe Sitch), Megan Haeusler (Dustin), and Michael Kunz (Whitney Lilly); four grandchildren: Ethan and Hannah Sitch, Logan and Hudson Haeusler; brother, Kelvin Kolbeck (Robin) and his family, Kara Harder (Paul), and Alison Kolbeck and her son Aiden; brother, Brent Kolbeck (Linda) and their family, Mitchel, Carter (Shira Gold), Kendyll Herauf (Logan), and Mason; sister-in-law, Linda Kunz and her family, Derek (Roxanne) and their children Hailey and Jarod, and Dawnette Brett (Sonny) and her children Abigail, Isabella, and Eyva; sister-in-law, Connie Bley (Brad) and her children Alisha and Taylor; and her mother Mary (nee Pomedli) Kolbeck. She was predeceased by her father, Michael Kolbeck; brothers-in-law: Harvey Kunz and Richard Kunz; sister-in-law, Nettie Kolbeck; and by her parents-in-law, Norbert and Celestine (nee Ehalt) Kunz.
