Nina, the third youngest of 14 children, was born on August 21, 1927, to August and Katherine (nee Wirtz) Loxterkamp in Humboldt, SK. She grew up on the family farm near Fulda. After completing Grade 8, Nina helped her brothers Jim and Irvin on the farm. On November 20, 1950, she married Flavian Lohman and they were blessed with one daughter, Debbie. After retiring from farming in 1974, Flavian and Nina moved to Middle Lake where they became actively involved in the community. They enjoyed travelling and made many winter trips to the southern U.S., as well as taking vacations in Hawaii and the Philippines. After Flavian's passing in 1988, Nina continued her passion for travelling, taking many bus tours with her friends. When the task of maintaining her house and yard became a challenge, Nina decided to move to Bethany Pioneer Village where she spent her final years. From an early age, Nina's faith played a key role in her life. She was always eager to be involved in parish activities and especially enjoyed being a member of the church choir for many years.

A Fallen Limb

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
 I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
 Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
 The good life I lived while I was strong.
 Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
 Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
 My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest,
 Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
 Continue traditions, no matter how small.
 Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
 I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
 Until the day comes we're together again."*

Nina will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her daughter, Debbie (Gerard) Worms; their four children and three grandchildren: Jolene (Shane) and their two children Kyra and Tristan, Jessica (Darrel), Jeff (Danielle) and their son Jack, and Justin. Also surviving are two sisters-in-law: Mary Loxterkamp and Betty Loxterkamp; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Flavian Lohman; her parents, August and Katherine (nee Wirtz) Loxterkamp, 13 brothers and sisters; and by in-laws of the Lohman family.
