

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life

Ruth was born on December 28th, 1942, to Mary (nee Woelk) and Jacob H. Falk at Saskatoon, SK. She was the youngest of two children. Ruth grew up just south of Dundurn on a small farm, and attended Dundurn School up to Grade 10. She went on to complete her high school education at Rosthern Junior College and obtained her Teacher's Certificate in Saskatoon. She taught elementary school in Dundurn and Hanley. It was during that time that Ruth met her husband Eric. They were married on July 10th, 1965, and made their home in Hanley. They had two daughters. Sadly, on August 24th, 1981, Eric passed away. Ruth worked very hard to support her small family. She was independent, organized and a whiz with numbers. In 1992, Ruth moved to Saskatoon to be closer to her mom and her work. While living in Saskatoon, Ruth had numerous jobs and in 2005, she retired from Royal University Hospital. During her retirement, she enjoyed traveling, crafting, baking and spending time with her family. In 2012, Ruth moved to Humboldt and two years later, as her health deteriorated, she moved to Bethany Pioneer Village. She loved being by the lake and could hardly wait until spring arrived so she could go out on her scooter to enjoy the beautiful scenery. She especially loved visiting at the park's concession and was often spotted enjoying her favorite treats.

Ruth is lovingly survived by her two daughters: Jackie Martens (George Lawrence) of Hanley, SK, and Bonnie (Derek) Kolbeck and three beloved grandchildren, Matthew, Madison and Sydney, all of Lake Lenore, SK; her brother, Walter (Elvera) Falk; and by brothers-in-law: Irvin (Ann) Martens, Victor (Louise) Martens, and John Martens. She was predeceased by her husband Eric Martens; father and mother, Jacob and Mary (nee Woelk) Falk; and by her brother-in-law, Rick Martens.
