

A Letter from Heaven

*When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
Though I know your heart aches so
But remember
It was for the best.....
It was my time to go
I know how much you love me....
As much as I love you.
And each time you're thinking of me,
I know you'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.*

Frances was born to Joseph and Gertrude (nee Duerr) Lueke on March 8, 1922, at Humboldt. She grew up on the family farm in the Humboldt district, and attended Gertrude School. After completing her Grade 8 education, Frances worked for Ted and Ann Brockman in Humboldt. On August 9, 1943, she married John Pollries in Fulda, SK. Their union was blessed with seven children. Due to John's career with the Canadian Armed Forces, they resided in various places, including Maple Creek, SK, Brandon, MB, and Vernon, BC. When he was sent to England, Frances lived with her parents until John's return. Frances and John then resided in Humboldt for a short time before moving to a farm in the Humboldt area, then to a farm near Annaheim, eventually settling on the farm south of St. Gregor. After raising her family, Frances worked at St. Mary's Villa until retiring in 1987. As well as being a busy and dedicated homemaker, Frances enjoyed a number of hobbies and interests. She loved gardening, (especially tending to her many flowers), and watching the birds. Frances particularly enjoyed observing her favorite species, hummingbirds, as they ate at her feeder, and the chickadees which ate out of her hand. Other passions included sewing, knitting, and crocheting; innumerable afghans were lovingly created for all her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. As well, for many years, Frances was a member of the C.W.L. John passed away in 1990. Frances continued living on the farm until moving to Humboldt in 2000. In 2010, she became a resident of St. Mary's Villa, her home until the present.

Frances will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her seven children, 14 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren: RUTH (Robert) Kienlen and family, Scott (Amanda) Kienlen and children Joshua and Zachary, Lynn (Rob) Spence and daughter Karissa, and Nadine Kienlen (Don Neugebauer); DWAYNE (Linda) Pollries and family, Jason Pollries (Denette Shultz) and children Rylan, Graysen and Daelyn, Kevin (Jenn) Pollries and children Tonni, Jack, C.J., and Henry, and Russell Pollries; BRYAN Pollries (Shirley Bendig); ROLAND (Charlene) Pollries and son Shane Pollries (Courtney Senko); DONNA (Alvin) Sugden and family, Andrew (Chelsea) Sugden, and Kayleigh (Clinton) Hood; RANDALL Pollries (Valerie Adrian); and CHARMAINE Beauchesne and family, Jean-Paul (Jennifer) Beauchesne and children Erik and Scott, Danielle Beauchesne, Joshua Beauchesne, Madelaine Beauchesne, and Sarah Beauchesne; sister, Mildred (Roland) Engele; brother, James (Frances) Lueke; sisters-in-law: Lorraine Polreis, and Maryann Smith; and by numerous nieces, nephews, and their families. She was predeceased by her husband, John Pollries; parents, Joseph and Gertrude (nee Duerr) Lueke; brothers: Ted Lueke, and Joseph Lueke; parents-in-law, John and Mary (nee Grieman) Pollries; and by brothers-and-sisters-in-law: Agnes (Frank) Wegleitner, Lawrence (Clara) Polreis, Melvin Polreis, and Bud Smith.
