

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths

of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy

shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

She is also survived by her sisters Helen and Lorraine. Lynn was predeceased by her husband, Theophil; one son, Leonard; parents Edward and Lindena; stepmother Adelle; brothers Leo, Harold and Edward; and sisters Gertie and Lily.

Lindena was better known to everyone as Lynn. Actually, Lynn's real name is Leontina but somehow certificates were registered incorrectly, and she was formally called Lindena. Lynn was born to Edward and Lindena (nee Moyck) Hoffman on March 3, 1925 in Stettler, Alberta. Her mother passed away when she was two weeks old and so Lynn was raised by family friends for the first part of her life until her dad remarried a couple of years later. She was raised and educated at Sunny View School in Spalding. By around grade 9, Lynn was helping the family by working at various jobs in the Spalding area. She eventually took a job in Lanigan where she met Theophil Renz at a local Lutheran church function. On June 16, 1948 she married Ted at the Dovre Lutheran Church in Spalding. They initially lived with Ted's parents on the farm in Jansen until they purchased the John Murdoch farm near LeRoy. They farmed from Jansen for a short period until they moved to the homestead where Don and Kathy presently live today. They had five children together. Anyone who knew Lynn knew she was an incredible cook and baker. Her cinnamon buns and donuts were well known by everyone in the community. She loved to sew, crochet, embroider and quilt and we all are so very lucky to each have some of her handiwork. Lynn was also so hard-working both in the house and helping dad run the farm and tend to the many chores necessary of a mixed farmer in those days. She was a member of the Lutheran Ladies Aid, Elks Auxiliary and very active in the community. Her children always came first as did her grandchildren. She was a devoted wife, mother, and loving grandmother. She was deeply loved and will be missed by all.
