

Time has taken me from you
So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart.
Take good care of each other
And carry all my love.
If you are wondering if I am there,
Here is where you start.
Take a look inside yourself
And within your heart.
I'll always be your husband,
Your father, grandfather, and friend
So anytime you need me,
Close your eyes -
I am there with you again.

Albert Roger Rohel was born on March 9, 1951, to Alain and Elsie (nee Piatt) Rohel on their farm near St. Brieux, SK. His youth was spent helping on the farm and attending Tilly School. Albert had one brother, Marcel, and three sisters, Marie, Helen and Evelyn. While attending St. Brieux School he met his life-long sweetheart, Marlyane Boulanger, whom he married on August 7, 1971. After a brief move to Welland, Ontario, with his new wife and in-laws in an effort to broaden his job opportunities, Albert and Marlyane moved back to the farm, but now with two small additions to their family, Jason and Chad. Albert stopped farming in the mid 1980's, finding the demands of the farm and a full-time job at Bourgault Industries Ltd. was taking too much time away from his young family. He continued a long career at Bourgault Industries of more than 37 years, moving through various positions such as Welder, Weld Supervisor, R&D, Tooling, and Facilities. Through the years Albert fostered a love of staying physically active and was passionate about anything involving the outdoors. He especially enjoyed shooting, trapping, hunting, Bison farming, and fishing. He was a master fabricator/welder and could make just about anything out of metal or iron. Albert is predeceased by his father Alain; father-in-law Maurice; mother-in-law Illeen; sister Marie and brother-in-law Joseph; and by his niece Eleanor. He will be lovingly remembered and missed by his wife of 47 years, Marlyane; sons, Jason and Chad; grandchildren: Kyle, Jordan and Emily (Jason), Morgan, and Reagan (Chad); mother Elsie; brother, Marcel (Shirley); sisters: Helen (Wayne), and Evelyn (Doug); brothers-in-law: Charles (Elva), Leland (Debbie), and Larry (Paulette); as well as many nieces and nephews. His quiet demeanor, unique sense of humour, zest for the outdoors, and love for his family will be deeply missed.
