

To Those I Love

When I am gone, release me, let me go ...

I have so many things to see and do,

You musn't tie yourself to me with tears;

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess

How much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you have shown,

But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must;

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,

So bless the memories with your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on;

So if you need me, call and I will come,

Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear

All of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile, and welcome you home.

Evelyn was born to Henry and Anna (nee Wilkes) Sommer at Mrs. Wood's Nursing Home in Watson on August 7, 1927. On October 10, 1951, she married Charles "Carl" Silzer. They built their home on the farm south of Watson. Evelyn was a homemaker and farmer's wife, raising five daughters and two sons. In later years, she worked as a part-time housekeeper at the Watson Motor Inn. Evelyn also provided janitorial services along with Carl at Sacred Heart R.C. Church in Watson. As well at that time, she looked after the altar linens and the floral displays for the church. Evelyn was a member of the CWL for 57 years, and was a woman of great faith. Her hobbies included crocheting, gardening and painting. In later years, she made rosaries for the C.W.L. which were then distributed to the Missions and others in need. Her favourite memories included trips to Disneyland, Alaska, the Maritimes, and visiting with family in Oregon and Illinois. Evelyn is survived by her seven children: Mary Ann (George) Dearing, Irene (Norbert) Gabriel, Bernadette (Randal) Schwartz, Immaculatta (Harvey) Wenger, Rose (Ron) Descalchuk, Harold (Sharon) Silzer, and Gerald (Deanna) Silzer; 21 grandchildren and their spouses; 47 great-grandchildren; brothers-and-sisters-in-law: Jake (Pat) Silzer, Frank Silzer, and Emil (Faye) Silzer; and by numerous nieces, nephews, and their families. She was predeceased by her husband, Carl Silzer; two grandsons: Curtis and Gregory; one great-grandson, Lucas; her parents, Henry and Anna (nee Wilkes) Sommer; three brothers and their spouses: Steve (Ann) Sommer, Charles (Evelyn) Sommer, and Clarence (Delores) Sommer; and by three sisters and one brother-in-law: Elizabeth Sommer, Marion (Pete) Eberli, and Lillian Sommer (in infancy).
