

MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared.
Miss me - but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.*

Charles was born to John and Sophie (nee Porkala) Simon; both of his parents were from Budapest. Charlie was married to his sweetheart Elizabeth Ilg in 1960, until her passing in January 2000. Charles was a hardworking man who worked long hours mainly on road construction. He worked all of his life for his girls (whom he referred to as Charlie's Angels)! Later on came the boys, their husbands, who loved and respected him. He leaves behind to mourn his daughters, several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
