

Miss Me, But Let me Go
When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little - but not too long and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take and each one must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
go to the friends we know

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me - but let me go.

Wayne was a proud man of few words, he was always tinkering with something even if it wasn't at his own house. If anyone needed help with something, he was always there to lend a hand or teach them how to do it. He took pride in making sure things were just right and if not, he would spend the time on it until it was. Wayne and Ruth spent much of their time being active together in many things, they enjoyed their summers camping at various lakes through the province and golfing at different courses through their travels. The past few years Wayne took on the task of caring for the Curling Rink and Golf Course in Quill Lake, something he took great pride in and it was greatly noticed in their community. Wayne was an avid sports enthusiast-football (NFL), Baseball, Curling, and Golf and was always talking teams with anyone who would entertain it with him. Dad was an amazing father, he was always there for you when you needed him, he was a teacher of life that we will never forget. His drives around town with Curtis were something he always looked forward to and he made sure there was always a rootbeer kicking around for his Buds (Curtis). Wayne worked until retirement at Mitchells Foods in Saskatoon wherein afterwards they chose to retire to Quill Lake. Wayne will be dearly missed by his wife of 37 years, Ruth (nee Paterson) Swenson; children: Shawna (Curt) Kowalchuk, Ronda Swenson, and Curtis Swenson; his grandchildren Brady Kowalchuk, Kirsten Robert and Baylee Swenson; siblings: Judy (Al) Reynolds, Ron (Christie) Swenson, Peggy (Dan) Watt, Randy (Lori) Swenson and Allan Swenson; siblings-in-law: Linda Paterson, Lois Paterson (special friend Dave Atter), Laurie (Reg) Bentley and Iris (Bruce) Fjeld; as well as numerous nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles. Wayne was predeceased by his parents Leslie and Alma Swenson; son Brett Swenson; parents-in-law Gord and Mae Paterson; and brother-in-law Kelly Paterson.
