Bob was born in Bruno to Frank and Noella ‘Honey’ (nee Dufort) Tegenkamp. He lived with his Grandma Tegenkamp while attending Bruno school for the first five years of his education and later St. Quinton school. He began working at a young age at Schwinghamer’s store following the unexpected death of his father. Bob had many occupations over the years including a mechanic at Bruno Motors, his own livestock trucking company and the role he enjoyed most of all as a school bus driver for 25 years. Although he retired officially in 2005, he was always busy helping with school maintenance, working around the farm and filling meat orders. He enjoyed early morning coffee uptown, visits with friends and family and a good laugh. Bob is survived by his wife of 54 years, Lucille (nee Haberman); children Jill Tegenkamp of Saskatoon, Todd Tegenkamp of Bruno; and Chad & Sacha Tegenkamp of Saskatoon and their children Georgia and Sophia; siblings Don (Linda) Tegenkamp of Beauval, Neil (Marie)Tegenkamp of Bruno, Linda Tegenkamp, Saskatoon, and Colleen Tegenkamp of Saskatoon; brothers-in-law David (Isabelle) Haberman of Kelowna, Lorne (Donna) Haberman of Saskatoon, Hubert Schwark of Bruno and sister-in-law Jean Tegenkamp of Wakaw and numerous nieces and nephews. Bob was predeceased by his sister Faye Schwark and brother Gerald Tegenkamp.
