

*One night I dreamed a dream.
As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,
One belonging to me and one to my Lord.
After the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
especially at the very lowest and saddest times,
there was only one set of footprints.
This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
You'd walk with me all the way.
But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life,
there was only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why, when I needed You the most,
You would leave me."
He whispered, "My precious child,
I love you and will never leave you
Never, ever, during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."*

Gwenda Cecilia Wegman was born on October 19, 1958. She was the third child of John and Cecilia Jurgens of Fulda, SK. Gwen attended Fulda School and Humboldt Collegiate Institute for her education and then went to Saskatoon to work at the Co-op. In 1979, she moved to St. Gregor and rented a house from Muriel and Joe Wegman. This is where she met her husband Bruce. They were married on October 4, 1980, and had three children. Gwen worked as a librarian in St. Gregor School and Muenster School until she could no longer work. She enjoyed keeping busy with camping at Lucien Lake, knitting, sewing and curling to name a few. Gwen will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 38 years, Bruce Wegman; their three children and four grandchildren: Chris Wegman (Jana) and sons Emmett and Corben (mother Renee Wegman); Tyler Wegman (Dawna) and daughter Azaliya; and Kira Klitch (Ryan) and daughter Halle; two sisters: Elaine Pankratz and Jeannie Renneberg (Florian); in-laws of the Wegman family: Ralph Wegman and Sandy Weyland; and by numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents John and Cecilia Jurgens; parents-in-law, Joseph and Muriel Wegman; and by brother-in-law Bill Pankratz.
