

A Song for Judy
~written by her sister, Rachael, in 2016

It was a place called St. Gertrude where a gold-haired baby girl was brought home from the hospital on a cold December morn.
She was so small and fragile this tiny little babe
We named her baby Judy,
In a cradle she was laid.
Through the years she grew so quickly this precious little girl,
She loved to spend her play time
In a make-believe world.
She loved her friends and family
Like a flower loves the sun,
She was confident and friendly to the people all around.

Chorus:
And her smile is like a beautiful angel
Her eyes light up like the stars above
She's a carefree spirit with a love for Jesus
Big as the sky and the morning sun.

Well Judy loves to have fun
And she always does her best,
To make you feel she loves you
When she puts you to the test
To find out what's inside of you
When it comes to having fun
Cause she loves to sing and dance and laugh
And she loves to joke around.
She's like a bird in flight
Who just left its mother's nest
Up to the clouds she's not afraid
To soar above the rest.
Don't take this girl for granted
Cause she'll leave you with a smile,
She'll take your heart and win it
You won't forget her for a while.

Chorus:
And her smile is like a beautiful angel
Her eyes light up like the stars above
She's a carefree spirit with a love for Jesus
Big as the sky and the morning sun.

Judy was born on Dec. 9, 1954 in St. Elizabeth’s Hospital, Humboldt, SK. Judy’s schooling began at St. Gertrude School, a one-room country school, southeast of Muenster. She attended school in Humboldt, Muenster and then Saskatoon. After her formal education she became a well-liked babysitter for various families, and also did housecleaning jobs. Judy moved back to Humboldt in 1980 and lived in her house until 2013 when she became a resident at Cudworth Seniors’ Home. She relocated in 2014 to Samaritan Place in Saskatoon where she was the life of the party until her passing on to her Heavenly Home. Judy was gifted with an outgoing personality. She was well known in every community in which she resided and loved by all who knew her. If she didn’t know someone, she made it a point to talk to them and soon knew the names of all their family members including their birthdates. The amazing thing was she would remember it all! Judy had a good sense of humour and would get everyone laughing at her jokes and antics. She enjoyed sports and would be a noisy spectator at Humboldt Broncos’ hockey games. Several times she sang the opening National Anthem. At the high school football games she cheered the boys on. They all knew Judy!!! Judy was a community minded person contributing her time as a volunteer at Tea and Bake sales, bazaars, and bible camps, as a greeter and cross-bearer at church, St. Mary’s Villa and events such as the Saskatchewan Winter Games in 2002. She enjoyed attending locally performed plays and concerts. Music cheered Judy up and all the musicians that came to entertain at Samaritan Place enjoyed her dancing to their music. They will miss her. Everyone will miss her. She was a very special person and a gift to all. Judy will be lovingly remembered by her sisters Bertha Miller and Rachael Jardine and their families, and numerous relatives and friends. Judy was predeceased by her parents Raymond Bunz and Heidi Merkosky (Hazel Bunz), step-father Nick Merkosky, sister Veronica and brother-in-law John Miller.
