

*God looked around
His garden, and found
an empty space.
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.*

*He put His arm
around you,
He lifted you to rest.
God's garden
must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.
You never really left us, nor have you travelled far, merely entered
in God's garden,
and left the gate ajar.*

*If tears could build a stairway, and
heartaches make a lane,
we'd walk the path
to heaven and bring you home again.*

*Our family chain is broken, and nothing
seems the same,
but as God calls us
one by one,
the chain will link again.*

Annette was born to Mary (nee Weber) and Aloys Schwinghamer on November 28, 1939. She grew up in Bruno attending high school at St. Ursuline Academy and working at the family store. On November 16, 1960, she married the love of her life, Albert Huber, and together they built their life on the family farm until 2000, when they moved to town. They were blessed with three children—John, James and Paul. Annette was a kind-hearted woman, who always opened her door and her heart to everyone, and she treasured her time spent with family and friends. She loved to bake and cook so there was always an abundance of food and 'drinks' available, especially for those 'unplanned' visits, which gave her such delight. Gardening was a passion of Annette's and she devoted special care to her flowers, which brought the birds, and while she watched them, she knew each one by sight. Traveling was a great joy for Annette and through the years she visited many countries with Albert and their friends. In the summer, Annette loved her time with family and friends, visiting at the cabin at Wakaw Lake, and on the many camping and fishing trips she enjoyed over the years. Through the years she spent many hours sewing, crocheting, knitting and doing needlepoint. Annette made many pieces of clothing for her loved ones, and prepared blankets and outfits for her grandchildren to have for their future children. Watching her grandchildren grow up was Annette's greatest joy. Her grandkids' dance and vocal recitals, skating carnivals, and soccer games were all treasured memories for Annette and she was so happy to be a Great-Grandmother this year when Clara was born. Annette will be lovingly remembered and dearly missed by her husband of nearly 59 years, Albert; her children: John (Sharon), and family, Carlee and Hailey; James (Debbie), and family, Tiffanay (Colby), great-granddaughter Clara, and Jonathan (Allison); Paul (Darlene), and family, Alyssa and Kathryn; brother, Aloys (Joan) Schwinghamer; sisters, Helen (Rene) Jule and Kathleen Chouinard (Paul Dumont); brother-in-law, Rod Butler; sisters-in-law, Magdalen Dagenais, Janice Huber, Betty (Dennis) Dauvin, and Margaret (Ted) Polanik; brothers-in-law, Bernie (Gail) Huber and Barry (Marilyn) Dagenais; as well as by her many nieces and nephews, all of whom held a special place in her heart. Annette was predeceased by her parents, Aloys and Mary (nee Weber) Schwinghamer; brother, Jim (Yvonne) Schwinghamer; sister, Margaret (Dale) Ebert; brother-in-law, Ted Chouinard; parents-in-law, John and Anna Huber; and brothers-in-law, John Huber and Russell Dagenais.
