

Free

Don't grieve for me, from pain I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned around and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To love, to laugh, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace on a sunny day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys,
A family shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full. I've savoured much;
Good family, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee
God wanted me now; from pain I'm free.
"Till we meet again."

She was predeceased by her husband, George Poss (1996); son, Ronald John Poss (2018); parents, John and Leona (nee Flory) Ilg; brother, Harvey Ilg; and by her brother-in-law, Wilbert Worms.

Geraldine was born to John and Leona (nee Flory) on April 15, 1943, at Bruno, SK. She attained her education at Stearns Country School in the Fulda, SK, area. On October 12, 1963, Geraldine married the love of her life, George Theodore Poss in St. John's Church (Wilmont). The couple lived in Lanigan, SK, for a short duration, then moved to the family farm in the Burr district, where they resided for the remainder of their married life. Geraldine was a stay-at-home mom for many years, then later worked for Homecare in Humboldt, SK. She loved looking after people and enjoyed making them laugh. After a career of 25 years, she retired. George passed away in 1996. Geraldine continued to live on the farm until 2009, when she moved to a condo in Watrous. She loved the condo lifestyle and made many new friends with whom she became very close to. Traveling with her family frequently, and going on road trips with her friend Blanch provided a great deal of enjoyment for her. Other favorite pastimes were: gardening, especially decorating her deck with flowers; doing puzzles, of which she was a master; cooking and baking, at which she excelled; and socializing over a drink. Geraldine was also known as a person who wasn't afraid to speak her mind. She loved to communicate with her family and friends via telephone daily. Geraldine cherished her family dearly, and loved to bug her grandchildren.
