Audrey Yvonne was born in Melfort, SK on August 21, 1943 to John and Mildred (nee Shupe) Lees, she attended school in Nipawin, SK. As a young woman she moved to Winnipeg, MB to marry David Collette where both of their daughters were born, Trudy in 1961 and Bonnie in 1963. In 1969 Audrey and her daughters moved to Saskatoon, SK. She enrolled in Marvel College taking Hairdressing and graduated in 1970, working night and day in the service industry to support herself and her two daughters on her own. Audrey worked at some great places over the years, starting with the Red Lion and Yipps and finally, at the Patricia Hotel, which is where Audrey met Harold Schuler. Audrey was a bartender at that time and Harold actually proposed passing the ring over the bar while Audrey was working. Harold Schuler was truly a gift from heaven for Audrey and her girls. Audrey and Harold had many hobbies and were always together. They snow-mobiled, played shuffleboard at the legion and won many tournaments together. Todd Schuler was born in 1977 and Jerry Schuler in 1979. Later they built their first cabin at Middle Lake, SK where other Schulers' had also built. A grande family affair. Even the boys hammered a few nails. Audrey and Harold spent a lot of time playing bingo and enjoyed many trips to Vegas playing the slots. In 1986, Audrey's first grandson David was born to Bonnie and Danny Symynuk. Just a few years later in 1993 Audrey's first granddaughter, Frankie was born to Trudy and Bob Schan. Audrey and Harold later sold their cabin and purchased a house trailer at Christopher Lake where they spent many weekends with Todd, Jerry, Bonnie and Danny, Trudy and Bob, fishing, having bonfires and making bush-pies. Harold loved taking his family out fishing and water skiing. Many late-night card games were enjoyed. Audrey was offered a job at the Cancer Lodge, a new career. Ten years later Audrey moved over to the Cancer Clinic and became a porter. Audrey took many patients, friends and family to their Chemo and other Cancer treatments, spending 18 years committed to Cancer. After Harold passed away in 2006, Audrey retired from the Cancer Center and spent as much time as she could with her family. In 2011 her second granddaughter Dylan was born to Todd and Lianna Schuler. Shortly after Audrey's second grandson Austin was born to Jerry and Tanya Schuler. Her last grandson James was born in 2013. With great love and surprise Audrey became a proud great-grandmother to Zander Schan born to Frankie Schan in 2015. Audrey spent a tremendous amount of time searching for treasures at the Sally Annes, Value Villages and second-hand stores in Saskatoon. A true collector. Every place Audrey went she always had a hug and or candy for all that she met. Special thanks to so many for making Audrey's last years in Saskatoon wonderful. Dr. Tom Gabruch... Audrey was a grande woman and it was a pleasure knowing her. I will miss her hugs. Tanya Schuler for keeping mom free of pain for the last 10 years. Hairdresser Sandra Griffin who took care of mom's hair for many many years. Mom loved you dearly. Corrine Lees for taking mom to her treatments and appointments. Also, all the meals that were delivered with love, thank you Corrine and Wayne Lees. Care Aide Judy Vedress who was here with our dear Harold and then came and supported Audrey. You were amazing with mom. Audrey's housekeeper and friend Kathy Gregoire, Audrey truly enjoyed you and all your hard work. All the specialists, they all received hugs and love and returned the same back always. Thank you to all of you who made Audrey's last two years full of compassion and love. It will always be remembered. Audrey passed at home with her two daughters, and her faithful companion Ike at her side just as she wanted. Rest in peace mom we love you.
