

"The Deer Hunter's Psalm"

by Eddie & Jamie Squires ©

The Lord is my Shepherd;
I shall feel safe in the deer woods.
He maketh me lie back in my tree stand;
I fall asleep while a big buck walks by below.
He leadeth me beside the path of the buck scrapes.
This restores my soul.
He leadeth me through the thorns and thickets
For the sake of the biggest buck.
Yea, though I walk through the hills and the meadows;
I will have no fear.
My trusty rifle is with me.
My doe caller and my hunting knife, they comfort me.
He lets them prepare a deer steak dinner before me;
In the presence of my family.
They anoint the gravy with oil,
My waist line runneth over.
Surely the spikes and the big bucks shall be with me
All the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the land of the "big buck" forever.
