

Last Harvest

*The land is hushed,
The work is done,
The meadow
turns to gold.
A weathered wheel,
A wooden rake,
A farmer's tale unfolds.*

*There was a time
When rake and wheel
Served well
this fertile land.
When leather rein,
And wooden yoke,
Responded to his hand.*

*But like the fields,
He took his rest
From years
of toil and tare.
A wheel and rake
His epitaph:
A farmer
once lived here.*

Nikolaus (Nick) Steier was born on December 16, 1933, in Suple, Banat, Yugoslavia. He immigrated to Canada, docking at Pier 21, in Halifax, Nova Scotia, in June, 1948. He was accompanied by his mother, grandmother and brother. His first year in Canada was spent in Humboldt, Saskatchewan with his uncle, John and his aunt, Barbara Pape. Nick attended St. Augustine School in Humboldt and then started to work for Joe and Henry Pleiter who farmed north of St. Gregor, SK. He also worked for two years in a logging camp in British Columbia. After this experience, Nick returned to the Pleiter farm and farming was his main occupation until he retired in 1998. In 2001, Nick moved to Humboldt where he enjoyed going to McDonald's with his friends and coffee buddies. Nick will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his brother, Frank (Dolores) Steier; his nephews and their families: Steven (Michelle) Steier of Humboldt and son, Cody Steier (Jade Kennedy) of Saskatoon, SK, and Chris (Tammy) Steier of White City, SK, and sons Jared Steier and Garrett Steier; his niece, Stephanie MacKay (John Zee) of Edmonton, Alberta, and sons, Colin (Ashley) MacKay and Devin MacKay, and by numerous Pape cousins. He was predeceased by his father, Franz Steier, in 1944; his mother, Rosa Pleiter, in 1987; his stepfather, Joe Pleiter, in 1984; his grandmother, Elisabeth Kiefer, in 1977; and by his step-uncle, Henry Pleiter, in 1978.
