

When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered.
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day.

When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments and think of me
And remember only the best.

Bob was born on February 2, 1945 to Anthony and Mary (nee Albers) Stroeder at Humboldt, SK. He attended Marysburg School until Grade 9, staying home to continue to work on the farm. Bob farmed the majority of his life as well as working at the Auction Mart, Home Hardware and Ollerich's for many years. Bob was always willing to help his family with anything they needed. He enjoyed baseball, hockey and fishing.

Bob is survived by his two daughters and three grandchildren: Shannon (Ryan) Fleischhacker and son North, and Amy (Brendan) Kalthoff and children Delaney and Kaybri. He is also survived by his brothers and sisters: Melvin (Josephine) Stroeder, Grace Bautz, Millie (Ray) Hofmann, Tony (Sandy) Stroeder, Ann Zelle, Ken Stroeder, Ruth (Benno) Barlage, Karen Ferguson, Kevin (Allyson) Stroeder, and Judy (Paul) Ulrich; sister-in-law, Janet Stroeder; and by many nieces and nephews. Bob was predeceased by his parents, Anthony and Mary (nee Albers) Stroeder; sisters: Virginia (Arnold) Thimm, Marina Stroeder, Mary (Art) Lamping, Nettie Stroeder, Maria Stroeder and Elizabeth Stroeder (both in infancy); brother, Randy Stroeder; brothers-in-law: Roger Zelle, Cam Ferguson and Werner Wittke; nephews: Bruce Thimm, Morris Hofmann and John Barlage; niece, Carla Stroeder; two great-nephews: Logan Wittke and Landon Wittke; and by two great-nieces: Courtney Hammerer and Amara Wittke.
