

To Those I Love

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do,
You musn't tie yourself to me with tears;
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories with your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on;
So if you need me, call and I will come,
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and welcome you home.*

Josephine was born on November 21, 1937 in Lake Lenore, Saskatchewan to Gregor and Barbara (nee Brons) Hohmann. She was the third of seven children and their only daughter. Her family moved to Chilliwack, British Columbia when she was nine years old. This is where Josephine met the love of her life, Gerald Strueby. They were married on July 9, 1960 and moved back to Saskatchewan in 1962. They were blessed with six children. They lived briefly in Fulda, then in St. Gregor, and finally settled in Englefeld in 1972 for the next 41 years. Shortly after Gerald's passing in 2010, Josephine moved to Humboldt, then Regina, and then eventually to a long-term care home in Lumsden. Mom really enjoyed getting out to curl with her friends, family gatherings, and beating dad at cards. She lived a very private life but it was always one of constant giving and caring for her family while never taking or wanting much of anything for herself. Even though her later years were filled with many hard fought physical and emotional battles, she never voiced any complaints. She cherished every visit with her family and always had a smile and a chuckle to give despite her condition, right to the end.

Josephine will be lovingly remembered by her children: Patti (Cyril) Wehner of Watson, SK and their children Raquelle of Watson and Stephan (Bonnie) with children Blake and Heidi of Watson; Bev Strueby of Victoria, BC; Kelly (Brenda) Strueby of Humboldt, SK and their children Jeremy (Kerri) with children Jayna, Lincoln, and Charlize of Humboldt; Jesse (Amanda) Strueby of Humboldt, SK, and Jerrett (Mattea) of Red Deer, AB; Terry (Sharon) Strueby of Regina, SK and their children Adam (Erika), Erin, and Jeffrey; Deborah (Garnet) Hagen of Regina, SK and her daughters Nicole (Andrew) and Jordan (Tucker); and Kevin (Alexis) Strueby of Winnipeg, MB; three brothers: Joe (Gillian) Hohmann of Vancouver, BC; George Hohmann of Vancouver, BC; and Ron Hohmann of Salmon Arm, BC. Josephine was predeceased by her loving husband, Gerald Strueby; her parents Gregor and Barbara (nee Brons) Hohmann; and brothers: Ed Hohmann, Ferd Hohmann, and Ben Hohmann.
