

*A limb has fallen
from the family tree.*

I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.

*Remember the best times,
the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived
while I was strong.*

*Continue my heritage,
I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely
the sun will shine through.*

*My mind is at ease,
my soul is at rest.
Remembering all,
how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions,
no matter how small.*

*Go on with your life,
don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly,
so keep up your chin.*

*Until the days comes
we're together again."*

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed,
and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Arthur was born in Humboldt, Saskatchewan on August 5, 1949, to Edward and Clara (nee Hoffmann) Vanderlinde and he was the second youngest of six children. Art grew up on a farm, one mile east and one mile south of Annaheim, Sask., and he attended school in the town of Annaheim. Alongside his father, Art worked for many years and gained the skills that prepared him to later assume responsibility of the family farm. Throughout his life, Art had a passion for baseball and hockey and he played both for many years. On April 15, 1972, Art married his best friend and soulmate, Maxine Wourms. They built their home on the family homestead where they spent the rest of their life together. Their marriage was blessed with two beautiful children. Throughout his life, Art worked at Doepker Industries, Stammen Lumber and in the construction business with his brother-in-law, however his main passion and career was farming. For Art, family was everything. Together, Art and Maxine never missed a hockey game or a dance recital and this dedication carried over into the lives and activities of their grandchildren. Truly, Art's life revolved around his children, his grandchildren and the community of Annaheim. Art and Maxine shared many good times with family and friends at their cabin at Barrier Ford. Caring for their yard and garden was a passion for both Art and Maxine and their hard work is evident to anyone coming into the farmyard. Over the years they enjoyed travel with close friends and always ensured that their plans gave priority to the activities and birthdays of their grandchildren and family members. In retirement, Art continued to help his son and brother-in-law on the farm, as he never wanted to be far from the action or from his family. Art will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his wife and best friend, of 47 years, Maxine; their children: Shawna (Evan) Doepker and their children, Brooklyn, (special friend, Matthew McGrath) and Joshua of Annaheim, Sask.; Rylan (Leslie) Vanderlinde and their daughter, Signy and baby #2, due in October, of Humboldt, Sask.; his sister, Brenda Meyer and family: Trent (Meghan) Meyer, Jeff (Emily) Meyer, Craig (Cherie) Meyer, Jonathan Meyer (fiancé Alex); his brother, Jerome (Phylis) Vanderlinde and family: Scott (Tara) Vanderlinde, Warren Vanderlinde (fiancé Angela); his sister, Irene (Lyle) Puetz and family: Russ (Joy) Puetz, Rick (Paulette) Puetz, Greg (Brenda) Puetz, Susan Sperling, Steven (Darcy) Puetz; his sister, Pat (Ed) Timmermann and family: Cheryl (Dean) Anderson, Corinne Timmermann, Trevor (Pim) Timmermann; his sister, Marilyn (Erwin) Meyer and family: Gary (Sharen) Meyer, Donna (Randy) Crone; and his brothers-in-law, Brad Wourms, and Lynn Wourms (Pat Wittig) and family: Blair (Jennifer) Wourms, and Mitchell (Michelle) Wourms and Olivia. Art is predeceased by his parents, Edward and Clara Vanderlinde; father and mother-in-law, Ben and Viola Wourms; sister-in-law, Marianne Wourms; nephew, Jarred Vanderlinde; niece-in-law, Arlene Meyer; and nephews-in-law, Sheldon Sperling and Lyle Klashinsky.
