

In Loving Memory Of Rose Wolsfeld

Prayer of St. Francis

*Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.*

*O Divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled
as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying
that we are born to Eternal Life.*

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Rose was born on September 23, 1926, in Aka, Hungary, the eldest daughter of Frank and Theresia (Wachtler) Schweighardt. She was educated in Aka and worked on the family farm until 1944 when, due to the war, the family was evacuated to what was then, Czechoslovakia. Rose endured the difficulties of the Second World War with her family. Her father and eldest brother were in the army and lost their lives. In 1945, the family returned to Aka. After being deported with her family in 1948, Rose worked in a lace factory in Ellefeld, East Germany, until she fled to Heilbronn, West Germany, in 1949. There was much joy when the family was reunited in Niederneukirchen, Austria, in June, 1949. Rose arrived in Muenster, SK, with her mother and five siblings on May 4, 1950. She soon began to work at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, where she worked until 1955. On January 5, 1957, Rose married Alfred Wolsfeld. The couple adopted two girls on February 6, 1966, Mary and Theresa, who were sisters and only four and three years old. Alfred died suddenly at home in the afternoon of Sunday, October 8, 1978. Rose began to work at St. Mary's Villa in the dietary department in January of 1979 and she remained working there until February of 1991. Rose continued to volunteer at St. Mary's Villa, especially in the area of spiritual care. In her retirement, Rose took time to travel, taking several trips to Europe, including Rome, Medugorje and the Holy Land. She visited her homeland and hometown in Hungary three times and took a trip to Guadalupe, Mexico in 2003. Rose always took great pride in her two daughters, four grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. Rose will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her daughters: Mary (Ed) Symchyck, and their son, Shawn Symchyck (Paige Griffith) and daughter, Amber Symchyck (Randy Yu), all of Saskatoon, SK; Theresa (Chris) Marshall and their son, Alfred Marshall and daughter Brittany (William) Carley and their children, Chloe, Lily, Willow and Odin, all of Melfort, SK; and her brothers, Emmerich (Anne) Schweighardt and Nick (Yvonne) Schweighardt, both of Humboldt, SK; and her brothers-in-law, Joseph Einreinhoffer and David Nordick; her numerous nieces and nephews; and members of the Wolsfeld family. Rose is predeceased by her husband, Alfred Wolsfeld, (October 8, 1978); her brothers, John Schweighardt and Frank (Elisabeth †) Schweighardt; her sisters, Helen Einreinhoffer and Monica Nordick, and also two sisters in infancy.
