

*A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest,
It broke our hearts to see you go,
God only takes the best.*

*They say that memories are golden,
Well maybe that is true,
But we never wanted memories,
We only wanted you.*

*Your life was love and labour,
Your love for your family true,
You did your best for all of us,
We will always remember you.*

*We sat beside your bedside,
Our hearts were crushed and sore,
We did our duty to the end,
'Til we could do no more.*

*In tears we watched you sinking,
We watched you fade away,
And though our hearts were breaking,
We knew you could not stay.*

*Our lips cannot speak how we loved you,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say,
But God only knows how we miss you,
In our home that is lonely today.*

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Patricia, the oldest of 13 children, was born to Lambert and Francis (nee Lachmuth) Muyres on August 3, 1944, in Humboldt. She married the love of her life, Bernard “Ben” Bley, on September 30, 1963. They had two daughters, Lynnette (born in 1964), and Deborah Anne (born in 1966). After Ben passed in 2001, Patricia decided to leave the farm and move to Humboldt. There, she discovered her passion for volunteering. She helped with many organizations, but none touched her love as much as The Elizabeth Place. Patricia was so proud to have been a part of its’ establishment. In 2014, she moved to her condo and made a family out of her fellow residents. We could tell the feeling was mutual by their helping, caring and compassion over the years, especially after she became ill. Even though she loved volunteering, her heart belonged to her family, especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. If you happened to ask her about her family, you had to be prepared to listen to her stories for a while. The family would like to thank Patricia’s condo family for all their help, and everyone else who sent condolences and sympathies. Patricia will be lovingly remembered and dearly missed by her daughter and son-in-law, four grandchildren and their spouses, seven great-grandchildren, and three step-great-grandchildren: LYNNETTE and STUART Pappenfus and family: Juanita and Geoff Anderson and daughter Charlie, Chelsea and Tye Hagenes and sons Kota, Oran, Kael and Ethan, Miranda and Merrick Goldstein, sons Cordell and Lukas, daughters Julia and Olivia, Tyy and Joelle Pappenfus and daughter Addeline; five sisters and three brothers: Audrey (Norbert) Maier, Wayne (Marie) Muyres, Harvey (Shar) Muyres, Sandra (Doyle) Vermette, Susan (Wray) Brock, Roger (Cindy) Muyres, Louella (Brian) Martin, and Clarissa (Joe) Penner; in-laws: Leona (Joe) Heilman, Martin (Yvonne) Bley, Linda Bley, Betty (Tony) Bohmann, and Lori (Kent) Sproule; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. She was predeceased by her husband, Bernard Bley (2001); daughter, Deborah Anne (1980); her parents, Lambert and Francis (nee Lachmuth) Muyres; father-and-mother-in-law, Louis and Elizabeth (nee Willenborg) Bley; four brothers: Gordon Muyres, and three brothers in infancy; in-laws: Al Bley, Marie (Alfred) Knittig, and Art Bley; and by numerous aunts and uncles.
