

JESUS FORGIVE ME

I was born a little baby - a child so pure
God brought me here and loved me sure
I grew in my life till becoming a boy
My folks told me I was God's little joy.

Now time has taken away all my youth
I've grown into manhood and don't like the truth
I had no God and I started to change
My life became angry, bitter and strange.

Chorus

Jesus forgive me, Jesus forgive me
Forgive all the sins that I've done.
Please, Jesus forgive me, yes Jesus forgive me,
Forgive every sin don't miss one.

(Song written by Robert Damm)

On Friday, January 3, 2020, our loving husband, father and grandfather Bob peacefully passed away at the age of 78 in LeRoy, SK, with his wife by his side. He was predeceased by his parents, John and Eloise (nee Foster) Damm; and three siblings: June Ashfield, Dave Damm and Sharon Olson. Bob is survived by his wife Patricia (nee Briggs) Damm; son Tyler; grandson James; daughter Kari (Bart De Marie); grandsons William, Samuel and Benjamin; as well as many other extended family members.

Bob will be remembered most for his 30+ years of teaching in various Saskatchewan communities as well as the Yukon. He shared his passion for music and the arts throughout his career writing plays, scripts and music with his students. Bob will also be remembered for his love of curling, skiing, camping and many other outdoor activities. Through it all his guitar was always by his side.
