Wilfred was born on November 13, 1933, to Charles and Mary (nee Koberinski) Dunne in Sinnett, SK. Wilfred farmed alongside his father and they ran a mixed farm of beef and grain. On the farm, his love of animals was well suited to his work with horses; Wilfred bred, raised and raced quarter horses. In addition to loving animals, he also found time for snowmobiling and motorcycling. One of Wilfred's many passions was hockey and he was 'NHL quality', playing with the Sinnett Savages, the LeRoy Braves and the Lanigan Pirates. There was no chance the NHL could win against Loretta though, she was the only choice for Wilfred, and on November 3, 1954, they were married. When they could, he and Loretta made time to hunt, fish and camp, pastimes they both enjoyed. Wilfred was a man of many talents and worked at the grain elevator, drove school bus for 18 years, and was grader and snowplow operator for the RM of LeRoy, SK. Some 30 years ago, Wilfred and Loretta moved to Humboldt where they both worked at Carlton Trail College with caretaking and maintenance and moving computers within the region. Once he retired, Wilfred continued to put in a great garden and Loretta canned and preserved everything that he grew. One thing he took time for every day, was a good long walk. When he passed away, Wilfred spent his last moments being held by his family.

Wilfred will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 65 years, Loretta Dunne (nee Meyers); and his five children and their families: Karen (Syl) Senko, and family: daughter Charlotte (James) Thomson, Brandi, Deanne, Layne and Taros, daughter Elise Dale, and children Jackson, Walker and McCoy, Karl (Nat) Senko and Rudy, and Paul (Caitlin) Senko and Buck; Sandie (Greg) McLean and family: Sarah Brown and Conner, Stephanie Brown, Christine (Brad) Elliot, Kim (Jordan) Mills, and Brad (Jade) McLean; Judy Dunne (Garry) and family: Crystal (Jordan) McKay and Jersey, Brad (Sharadyn) Andre, and Eric (Laurissa) Andre; Gregg (Shelly) Dunne and Nicholas; Kelly (Marie) Dunne and family: Daniel (Suvi), Jordan (Courtney) and their family Bennet, Quinn and Reese. Wilfred was predeceased by five angel babies.
