

In Loving Memory Of Agnes Annie Goller

*Jesus said to her: "I am the Resurrection and the Life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies,
will come to life..."
John 11:25*

*And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more,
neither will mourning nor outcry,
nor pain be anymore.
The former things have passed away.
Revelation 21:4*

*And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.
Acts 24:15*

Agnes was born to Laszlo and Mary (née Placsko) King, on the family farm in Middle Lake District, Saskatchewan, on February 27, 1920. This past February, she celebrated her 100th birthday. Throughout her life, Agnes enjoyed the farm and farm life. On April 4, 1942, Agnes married her husband Henry and together, they lived their lives near Middle Lake, SK. She always had beautiful flowers and grew a bountiful garden. At harvest time, she looked forward to driving the grain truck. While waiting for the grain truck to fill, she would spend a lot of time walking around the field, searching for arrowheads, and adding to her rock collection. She also collected antiques and dishes. Each and every piece had a story to tell, which all brought a magical smile to her face. Later in retirement, she took up oil painting, especially landscapes, and she was quite talented at this pastime. Over the years, Agnes was a caregiver to many people in her life, including her parents, her husband, her uncle, and others. She was an extraordinary person, humble and unselfish, and always willing to help others. Agnes will be lovingly remembered by her nieces and nephews: Lynn (Delmar) Teiber of Leduc, AB; Darrell (Sharon) King, and Arvid (Cindy) King, all of Middle Lake, SK; Sandra King (+Cordell King, 2017) of Cudworth, SK; Genevieve (Harold) Stauber of BC; and by numerous great-nieces, and great-nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, Henry Goller; her parents, Laszlo and Mary (née Placsko) King; her brothers and sisters-in law: Frank (Regina Elizabeth) King, and Herman (Josephine) King; her nephew Cordell King; and her nephew Sylvester King and great-nephew Arlen King, both in infancy.
