

*Grandma,
With the gift of years
comes the treasure of knowing that there are many who love you dearly.
The memories you've made with us will last forever.
The tenderness you've shared with us
will never fade.
The most wonderful gift you could ever give is the special part of you that now lives in each of us.
And the truth your love has taught us can only be strengthened by the gift of time ...
for where roots
grow deep,
memories grow
forever.*

Rena, as she was affectionately called, was born to Ernest and Ida (nee Hanson) Davis on July 15, 1932, at Theodore, SK. She was raised and attended school in Sheho, SK. In her younger years, a highlight of her life was a trip to France. In the early 1970s, she built her own house with the help of family and friends. For a number of years, Rena worked at Sears and Dreger's Drug Store in Lanigan. She retired in 1988. A very talented woman, throughout the years, Rena pursued a number of hobbies and interests including painting, sewing doll clothes, flower arranging, cake decorating, and crocheting. All her family have blankets she lovingly crocheted for them. As well, Rena had a passion for birds and flowers. Her faith was an important part of her life; she was a very active member of Knox United Church and sang in the church choir.

Rena will be lovingly remembered by her daughter Deanna's family, Dwayne (Lorraine nee Cote) Sagh and their family, Wendy (Brandon) and son Jett, Jocelynn (Lambert), and Stacey (Nickolas); Myrna (Wes) Doerksen and their family, Suzanne (Trevor), Jazmine (Spencer), and Cody; and Kathy (Liz) Mabbs and son Caleb; her son Robert's family, wife Elaine Gudmundson and family, Christin (Chris) Matalski and their children Coby, Ebran, and Cierra, and Crystal Gudmundson and family, Deanna, Norman, and Abigail; two brothers: Del (Phyllis) Davis, and Fred Davis (Marcella Easley); sister-in-law, Joyce Davis; and by numerous nieces and nephews. Rena was predeceased by her daughter, Deanna George; son, Robert Gudmundson; parents, Ernest and Ida (nee Hanson) Davis; and by her brother, Harold Davis.
