

In Loving Memory Of
Leon Helgert

We'll Never Say Goodbye

I cannot see you with my eyes
or hear you with my ears.
But thoughts of you are with me still
And often dry my tears.
You whisper in the rustling leaves
That linger in the fall;
And in the gentle evening breeze,
I'm sure I hear you call.
A part of you remains with me
That none can take away.
It gives me strength to carry on
At dawning of new day.
I think of happy times we shared,
And then I softly sigh.
But this I know --- we'll meet again
And never say goodbye.

He will be greatly missed by his loving partner, Christal Krahenbil of 36 years, and his daughter Gail Morrison (Les); Christal's children, Warren Krahenbil (Christine) and Gaylene Steeg (Todd James); his grandchildren: Alexis Krahenbil, Madelynne Krahenbil, Ashley Steeg, Jessie Steeg, Stacey Zerebeski (Derek) and Derek Morrison (Christina); and his great-grandchildren: Jade Murk, Taylor Murk, Benjamin Zerebeski, Justine Zerebeski and Ella Morrison. He is also survived by his sister Kathrine Kramer; brother Alois Helgert (Marj); in-laws: Faye Godart, Jeannie (Ron) Egger, and Gail Kulcheski (Ron); and numerous nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his father Alois Sr.; mother Emma; and brothers-in-law, Kenneth Kramer, Randall Cleveland, and Delmar Cleveland. Leon was born in Bruno, SK. He farmed in the Bruno area until moving to Fort McMurray, Alberta, where he worked for Caterpillar/R. Angus as a heavy-duty mechanic. It was in Fort McMurray that he met Christal and they began their life together. In retirement, he enjoyed attending dances, and travelling with the fifth wheel across Canada and the USA. He also enjoyed fishing and snowmobiling, but his real passion was going back to the farm and checking crops.
