

Psalm 23
The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He makes me
lie down in green pastures;
He leads me
beside still waters.
He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths
of righteousness,
For His name's sake.
Even though I walk
through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff,
they comfort me.
You prepare a table
before me
in the presence
of my enemies;
You anoint
my head with oil;
My cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me
all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Kory was born in Humboldt, SK, on December 13, 1987. He grew up in Humboldt and at the family farm just north of town. Kory attended St. Augustine School from Kindergarten through Grade 8. He then went on to Humboldt Collegiate Institute where he graduated from Grade 12, in 2006. While in high school, Kory worked part-time jobs at the Shell gas station, the IGA and Humboldt Farm Equipment. Following high school, Kory obtained employment in the oil fields and later ventured into mining. He specialized in diamond drilling, working in the gold, uranium, and later, the potash industries. Kory had a passion for the outdoors. He spent many happy times camping, hunting, fishing, quadding and snowmobiling. He enjoyed spending time with his cousins and many friends. Kory loved being in the company of his dog, Rocko, and spent endless hours playing outdoors with him. Kory will be remembered as a loving son, brother, and grandson, a caring uncle, a loyal friend and a kind and gentle person. He will be sadly missed by his special friend in life, Jennifer Gerla, their dog, Rocko, and her family; father, Roger Lins (Bev Korosi); mother, Linda Lins; brother, Kriston Lins and his daughter, Skye; paternal grandmother, Rosemarie Lins; and maternal grandmother, Jeanette Chambers. He is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Kory was predeceased by his paternal grandfather, Herman Lins; maternal grandfather, Henry Seier, and aunt, Kathy.
