"Dedicated to those we serve."

My Days

*my days are over
as I journey on
my days
of toil are done
the moments
of laughter
and tears
is a photo
of memories
of past time
as I travel beyond
a radiant glow
of love
and happiness
my work is done
from this world*

Vernie was born in Cudworth, Saskatchewan, on June 10, 1939, the eldest daughter of Peter and Helen Beckman (née Bodnar). She attended school in Dana, SK, and later in Prud'homme, SK. On December 18, 1965 she married Joseph Reifferscheid and resided at the farm near Humboldt, SK. Throughout her life, Vernie worked at several occupations. After her husband's death in 1992, she worked as a pest control officer in the RM of Humboldt, SK, the RM of LeRoy, SK, and in the City of Humboldt. In 2006, Vernie moved into Humboldt and resided there until her passing. She had a very creative side and over the years she took part in numerous art courses, which included painting classes, and courses in creative writing and poetry. Vernie presented several of her poems at St. Peter's College in Muenster, SK, and many of her poems were published in the St. Peter College Society magazine. With her varied interests and participation in different groups and classes, Vernie was very well known around Humboldt and the surrounding area and she will be sadly missed by her family, as well as her many friends and neighbours. Vernie is lovingly remembered by her four children: Brigitte (Kevin) Monteith, Herman (MaryAnn) Reifferscheid, Norman Reifferscheid, and Bernadette Reifferscheid; six grandchildren: Crystal (Steve) Janzen, Ashley (Jason Toll) Dugan, Tyler (Megan) Wiebe, Robyn (Garret Graff) Reifferscheid, Adrienne (Matt) Janzen, Kristen (Jordan Carlson) Reifferscheid, and nine great-grandchildren; Taylor, Katelyn, Owen, Carter, and Hudson Janzen, Logan Wiebe, Sydney and Aidan Graff, and Riley Carlson; two brothers: Wilfred (Elaine) Beckman and Lyle (Marlene) Beckman. Vernie was predeceased by her husband Joseph Reifferscheid (1992), and her parents, Peter and Helen Beckman (née Bodnar).
