

*To my dearest family,
Some things I'd like to say,
But first of all to let you know,
That I arrived okay.
That day I had to leave you,
When my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me,
And said I welcome you.
Then God gave me a list of things,
He wished for me to do
And foremost on that list of mine,
Is to watch and care for you.
But do not be afraid to cry,
It does relieve the pain,
Remember there would be no flowers,
Unless there was some rain.
When you are walking down the street,
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps,
Only half a step behind.
And when you feel the gentle breeze,
Or the wind upon your face,
That's me giving you a great big hug,
Or just a soft embrace.
And when it's time for you to go
From that body to be free,
Remember you're not going,
You are coming here to me.*

Bernadette was born on May 7, 1926 to Paul and Mary Bauml on the family farm, the second of six children. She was raised in the Marysburg, SK area where she spent her days helping with the daily chores of the farm. In her earlier years, she drove tractor helping in the fields and became a huge help in the kitchen. She attended school in Marysburg until Grade 9, when it was necessary to help full time on the farm. On October 11, 1949 she married Arthur Schemenauer, the love of her life. Bernadette and Art settled close to their parents and began farming in the Marysburg area. Together they raised seven children and worked hard to build a good life. But it wasn't all hard work as they enjoyed many holidays with family and friends. Card games, yearly fishing trips, square dancing, curling bonspiels, and travel were favorite pastimes. In 1980, Bernadette and Art built a beautiful retirement home in Lake Lenore, SK where they enjoyed their grandchildren and family gatherings. She moved to Caleb Retirement Village in Humboldt, SK in 2014 where she fully enjoyed her final retirement years. Bernadette is survived by her seven children: Linda (Ray) Politeski, Joe (Heather) Schemenauer, Susan (Allan) Mamer, Alan (Julie) Schemenauer, Jeanie Lysitza, Laurie Stephens, and Jim (Shannon) Schemenauer; 21 grandchildren; 29 great-grandchildren; sisters: Anne Prodahl, Joan Allen, and Dorothy Hopfner; sisters-in-law: Vicki Bauml, Lillian Bauml, and Theresa Schemenauer; numerous nieces and nephews; and life long friends. Bernadette was predeceased by her husband, Arthur Schemenauer, in 1993; son-in-law, Terry Lysitza; brothers, Ray Bauml and Clarence Bauml; and many loved in-laws.
