

A Thousand Kisses Deep
~ by Leonard Cohen

I loved you when you opened Like a lily
to the heat
You see I'm just another snowman Standing in the rain and sleet

Who loved with his frozen love His secondhand physique With all he is and all he was A thousand kisses deep

APPRECIATION

Our family thanks you sincerely for sharing in our sorrow.
Your thoughtfulness is appreciated and will always be remembered

Christine was born on September 20, 1967 to Michael and Evelyn (née Sabourin) Hein in Westlock, Alberta. She started school in Grande Prairie, AB, and continued at St. Albert, AB, graduating in 1985. At 15 years of age, Christine began working at the Youville Nursing Home in St. Albert and later attended NAIT, completing a degree in Social Work. Some years later, she again attended NAIT, this time to become a Red Seal Chef. She had a great passion for cooking and baking. Christine was first married in 2001 and she had two children, Jessa was born in 2002, and Brock in 2005. Chris would do anything for her kids, they were her pride and joy. After several years as a hardworking single mother, she met Lyle Sunderland in 2013, and moved to the farm in Saskatchewan. She worked hard and fit right in to the farm life. Her wonderful meals were a treat for everyone working on the farm and she was always willing to help with anything that needed to be done, from herding cattle to building bins. Lyle and Chris were married on March 21, 2016, in Kananaskis, AB. In 2017 she was diagnosed with Breast Cancer and in the course of her treatment, she underwent many surgeries and rounds of chemotherapy. In July of 2020, her cancer returned and she lost her battle on October 18th, 2020. Chris was predeceased by her father Michael, and her in-laws, John and Janet. Left to mourn her passing is her mother Evelyn; her husband Lyle; her daughter Jessa; her son Brock; her stepchildren: Thomas, Tyrell (Sarah), Travis (Kristen), and Jennifer; her grandchildren: John, Stella, and Evan; her brothers Dan (Cathy), and Jim (Lisa); her sister Claudine (Ryan); and many nieces and nephews.
