

Our Family Chain

We little knew that morning,
That God would call your name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

Henry was born in Germany, on October 1, 1927, to Henry and Josephine (Bochmann). He moved to Canada with his parents and older sister, Elizabeth, when he was still a baby. Growing up on their farm by St. Gregor, SK, Henry worked hard, something he would do all his life. As a young man, he was involved with installing the power lines and he also farmed by LeRoy, SK. Henry met the love of his life, Evelyn (Zamikousky) in Biggar, SK, and they were married in 1956. Together they raised nine children and farmed near LeRoy, with Henry working for the RM of LeRoy. Humboldt became home in the mid-1980's when Henry retired from farming, although he always had a wonderful garden and enjoyed being outside. Over the years, Henry loved going on road trips to different parts of Canada and the United States to visit friends and family. Closer to home, he enjoyed the times the family, and especially the grandkids, would come to visit. A man of few words, Henry always had a smile on his face and he was glad to do anything he could to help others. Henry will be remembered and sadly missed by his children and grandchildren: Caroline Thole [two children and five grandchildren]; Anna Marie Boute (Rick Milford) [four children and seven grandchildren]; Joanne Thole; Theodore Thole [one son]; Edward Thole [one son and two grandchildren]; Rose Marie (Marvin) Sagh [three children and two grandchildren]; Roxanne (Chuck) Thompson [two children and two grandchildren]; step-daughter-in-law, Fern [three children and three grandchildren]; one brother and four sisters: Mary Dunne, Clara Lemmerick, Joey Thole, Josephine Crone, and Elizabeth Harpauer. He is predeceased by his wife of 62 years, Evelyn (Zamikousky); sons, Roger Thole and George Thole; step-son, Gary Wiebe; sister, Martha Dunne; and by his parents, Henry and Josephine (Bochmann) Thole.
