

We'll Never Say Goodbye

*I cannot see you with my eyes,
Or hear you with my ears,
But thoughts of you are with me still,
And often dry my tears.*

*You whisper in the rustling leaves
That linger in the fall,
And in the gentle evening breeze,
I'm sure I hear you call.*

*A part of you remains with me
That none can take away,
It gives me strength to carry on
At dawning of new day.*

*I think of happy times we shared,
And then I softly sigh,
But this I know – we'll meet again,
And never say goodbye.*

Joyce was born to John and Josephine Weber (née Schemenauer), on April 2, 1933. She was raised on the family farm with her brothers and sisters and attended Hat Creek School in the St. James area. For some years, Joyce worked at a restaurant in Spalding, SK. When Joyce moved to Saskatoon, SK, she worked at OK Economy until she began working at Intercontinental Meats in September 1966 where she worked for 27 years, until her retirement in 1993. She bought her own home and loved her yard work and flower beds until 2003 when she moved to her condo. Over the years Joyce made many good friends and continued with her flower pots, watching the birds and the beautiful flower beds. She enjoyed playing cards, (and winning!); watching curling, or “The Price is Right” and “Wheel of Fortune” on TV; and she was a wonderful cook, known for her great soup. Travelling was something that Joyce took time for and truly loved, whether she was joined by friends or family. Some of her destinations included cruises to Panama, Alaska and the Caribbean, and a trip to Hawaii. Closer to home, Joyce took a real interest in her extended family, especially her treasured nieces and nephews, and everyone will remember her big, hearty laugh. She took trips to the lake any chance she had and liked the BBQ’s, especially hot dogs, sauerkraut and ribs! Fall was a time that Joyce would love to go for drives, just to see the fields and the combines going. Her health needs eventually brought her closer to her family in Humboldt and area. She lived in Caleb Village for two years until she needed more care, and moved to Central Parkland Lodge in Lanigan, SK, and finally to Bethany Pioneer Village in Middle Lake, SK. Joyce is lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her two sisters: Eileen (Donald) Doepker and Gladys (Frank) Hamilton; brother Melvin (Linda) Weber; sister-in-law Valerie (Daniel) Moulton; and all her nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents, John and Josie; and brothers: Laverne (Mae) Weber, Clarence (Shirley) Weber, and Arnold (Judy) Weber.
