It is with profound sadness that the family of Daryl Jeffrey Collin of the Bruno district, SK, announces his sudden and unexpected death (brain aneurysm) at his farm. He was 57 years of age. Daryl, the youngest of five children, was born to Robert and Evelyn (née Harvey) Collin on July 28, 1963, in Humboldt, SK. He grew up on the family farm near Peterson and attained his Grade 12 education at Bruno School. After graduating in 1981, Daryl attended Kelsey Campus for the 1-year Autobody program. His career started at Humboldt Autobody where he worked for six years. Daryl then decided to learn a new trade and worked at Peterson Furniture Manufacturing. In 1989, he bought his home quarter from Walter Harvey and began part-time farming. When the furniture manufacturing closed, he worked part-time at Reliable Roofing in Humboldt. In 1992, he built his autobody/woodworking shop on his farm and began Kildrum Autobody. He ran the shop for 15 years while continuing to full-time farm. He retired in 2012 to have more time to spend on his hobbies. Daryl, or "Johnny" as he was affectionately known by his friends, was a perfectionist in everything he did, whether it was a project, farming, or tending to his yard. Among his passions were his antiques and family history. As well, Daryl loved playing and watching sports. He was still an active curler, bowler, and golfer, and loved watching his Toronto Maple Leafs, Saskatchewan Roughriders, and Toronto Blue Jays. Most of all, he loved watching all of his grandkids play hockey.

"Daryl, you have no idea of all the lives you have touched with your smile, generosity, kindness and sense of humor. You did not go alone – you have a piece of our hearts to take with you. We love you and miss you beyond words."

Daryl will be lovingly remembered by his partner/fiancé, Sherry Dust; stepsons: Cory (Dawn), Wesley (Ashley), and Michael (Sheena); his special grandchildren: Ben, Grayson, Brielle, Tensley, Maris, and Kolsen; his sister, Janet (Dave) Runge; his brothers: Brian (Lucy), and Mervin (Annette) and by one nephew: Michael (Joanne); nieces: Crystal (Mark), Tanya (Ricky), Janelle, Breanne (Dirk), Lisa, Sarah (Catlynn), Leanne (Greg), and Christa; two aunts, Theresa Harvey and Thora Harvey; numerous cousins; mother-in-law, Kaye Gartner; brothers-in-law: Keith (Debbie), and Lyle (Lois); and sister-in-law, Lynn (Mark). He was predeceased by his father, Robert Collin (2011); mother, Evelyn (née Harvey) Collin (2017); brother, Brent Collin (in infancy, 1961); and niece, Crystal Runge (in infancy, 1976).
