Agatha Borstmayer was born on April 9, 1918 to August and Barbara (nee Zangl) Blaseg in Bruno, Saskatchewan. She lived in Bruno most of her younger years and also at the family farm in Bremen, Saskatchewan. On November 9, 1942 she married Leo Borstmayer of Cudworth and they were blessed with four children: Connie, Leota, Florian (deceased 1957) and David. Agatha and Leo made their home on the family farm where mom's love of gourmet cooking, exquisite desserts, and gardening became some of her passions. She delighted in having the family home for Sunday dinners, where her cooking skills were so very evident. One never left her kitchen or home hungry. She also enjoyed playing cards, especially the game of Smear.

Agatha will be lovingly remembered by her daughters Connie (Chester) Ptasinski of Calgary and their children Chad and Tasha; Leota (Walter) Servetnyk of Saskatoon and their children Crystal (Phoenix and Ty) and Jerrad; her son David (Shirley) Borstmayer of Cudworth and their children Pamela (Jon) Labonte (Jayda and Averie), Jennifer (Stephen) Jungwirth (Olivia and Liam), Shari (Mike) Chelack (Bentley), and Michael Borstmayer. She was predeceased by her loving husband Leo Borstmayer and son Florian as well as her parents August and Barbara (Zangl) Blaseg; her brothers Albert, Francis, Peter, John, August, Joe, Edward; her sisters Annie Hergott, Mary Felix, Gertrude Bendig and Angeline Klasen and numerous brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law.

Today, we say goodbye to Agatha. May God welcome her into his Kingdom, and give her the peace she so rightly deserves. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her. Your journey has not been easy; however, your faith never faltered and your heart has never surrendered. You are my courage, my hope, my inspiration. Grandma...Mother... Let the Angels' wings carry and protect you. We love you and will never forget you.

Your Mother is always with you.
She's the whisper of the leaves
as you walk down the street.
She's the smell of certain foods you remember, flowers you pick,
the fragrance of life itself.
She's the cool hand on your brow
when you're not feeling well.
She's your breath in the air
on a cold winter's day.
She is the sound of the rain
that lulls you to sleep,
the colors of a rainbow;
she is Christmas morning.
Your mother lives inside your laughter.
She's the place you came from,
your first home,
and she's the map you follow
with every step you take.
She's your first love, your first friend,
even your first enemy,
but nothing on earth can separate you,
not time, not space...
not even death."
