Hattie was born on November 20, 1921, to Rudolph and Mary (nee Flory) Schmeiser in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Humboldt. She grew up on the family farm in the Fulda district and attended Keller School, a few miles west of her home. Following her education, Hattie helped with the work on the farm. On January 5, 1942, she married Raymond "Ray" Eggerman. They were the first couple to be married in St. Joseph's R.C. Church at Fulda. Their marriage was blessed with a daughter, Shirley. From 1942 to 1949, Hattie and Ray farmed at Fulda. They relocated east of Marysburg and farmed there until moving to a farm between Englefeld and Watson. Upon retiring, they lived in Humboldt for a number of years where Hattie worked for a time in a fabric store. She and Ray then moved to Chilliwack, BC, where Shirley and her husband Steve were teaching. A few years later, they returned to Humboldt where they decided to reside permanently. Throughout her married life, Hattie loved her role as a homemaker, was a meticulous housekeeper, and enjoyed gardening, sewing, and crocheting. In later years, she enjoyed spending leisure time playing cards. On December 23, 2009, Ray passed away. In 2011, Hattie became a resident of Bethany Pioneer Village.

*A beautiful life came to an end;
She died as she lived, everyone's friend.
She was always loving, thoughtful and kind,
What a precious memory she left behind.
Treasure her, God, in your garden or rest,
For in our hearts, she was one of the best.*

"We love you sister!"

Hattie is survived by her two sisters: Helen Musty of Humboldt, and Alma (Clinton) White of Regina; three sisters-in-law: Esther Schmeiser of Middle Lake, Johanna Eggerman of Watson, and Margaret Eggerman of Saskatoon; son-in-law, Steve Thoms of Humboldt; and by numerous nieces, nephews, and their families. She was predeceased by her husband, Raymond Eggerman (2009); daughter, Shirley Thoms (2010); parents, Rudolph and Mary (nee Flory) Schmeiser; brother, Raymond Schmeiser; and in-laws of the Eggerman family: Henry Anthony "Tony" Musty, John (Martha) Eggerman, Henry Eggerman, Albert (Cecelia) Eggerman, Arnold Eggerman, and Lawrence Eggerman.

In Loving Memory Of

Footprints in the Sand

*One night I dreamed a dream,
I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of
footprints in the sand,
one belonging to me and one to my Lord.*

*When the last scene of my life shot before me
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
There was only one set of footprints.
I realized that this was at the lowest and saddest times of my life.
This always bothered me and I questioned the Lord about my dilemma.*

*Lord, You told me when I decided to follow You,
You would walk and talk with me all the way.
But I'm aware that during the most troublesome times of my life there is only one set of footprints.
I just don't understand why,
when I need You most, You leave me.*

*He whispered,
"My precious child, I love you and will never leave you, never, ever,
during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."*

APPRECIATION
