Jean was born to William and Jean (nee Lyon) Ewen in the Haliburton District on November 8, 1915, and attended school until grade 8. She started working at the age of 14 as a hired girl for families in the surrounding area. In 1937, Jean married Albert Eichorst in Lanigan and they resided on a farm near Rush Lake and then moved to a farm east of Lockwood. They were blessed with the birth of two daughters: Darlene and Doris. In 1948, they moved into the town of Lockwood and then in 1957 they moved to their dream farm four miles east of Lockwood. They retired in 1974 to their new home that they built in Lanigan. In their retirement years, they enjoyed fishing, playing cards with friends, and going on excursions in their motorhome. Albert passed away in 1998, and in 2011, Jean moved to Caleb Village in Humboldt. Jean loved playing hockey, curling, playing cards, gardening, and crocheting. She was a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

Jean is survived by her two daughters: DARLENE (Mervin) Rucks and family: Lisa (Rick) Williams and their children Damon and Kennedy; Dean's daughter, Kirsi Rucks; DORIS (Garth) Burns and family: Heather (Scott) Kline and their children Amy and Bryce; Robby's children, Madison, Brittany, and Graham Burns Newberry; sisters: Anne Funk, Isabel Moulton, and Bess Neuman; brothers: Don (Lorraine) Ewen and Jack Ewen; sisters-in-law: Ruth Ewen and Evelyn Ewen; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She was predeceased by her husband, Albert Eichorst; two grandsons: Dean Rucks and Robby Burns; parents, William and Jean (nee Lyon) Ewen; sisters: Marybelle Ewen, Margaret (Henry) Mehling, Violet (Joe) Tendick, Verna (Bill) Burnson; brothers: Billie Ewen, Geordie Ewen, Gordon Ewen, Jim Ewen; in-laws: Joe Moulton, Howard Coleman, Avolt Neuman, and Tex Robson.

The Comfort and
Sweetness of Peace

After the clouds, the sunshine,
After the winter, the spring,
After the shower, the rainbow--
For life is a changeable thing,
After the night, the morning
Bidding all darkness cease,
After life's cares and sorrows,
The comfort and
sweetness of peace.
