Teachers change lives. Being the right person at the right time may be enough to change a person's life forever. Human beings are constantly changing. Whether for the good or for the bad, we do not stay the same. Having a positive influence in the form of a teacher can make or break a human being. Years after we are out of school, we remember the teachers that changed our lives. In most cases these may have been the first people that believed in us. That experience of having an authority figure believe that we could succeed carries us forever.

Agnes is survived by her daughter, Marjorie Hessam of Calgary, AB; Geraldine Hunks' family: Karen (Darin) Boire and children Kylie and Keegan; Dwayne Hunks; Shelley Hunks (Rob DaSilva) and children Jacob and Julliana; sister-in-law, Lena Rechenmacher; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She was predeceased by her husband, Emil W. Kienlen; daughter, Geraldine Hunks; grandson, David Hunks; parents, Anton and Mary (nee Diederichs) Rechenmacher; two sons-in-law: Douglas Hessam and Reginald Hunks; five sisters, three brothers; three sisters-in-law, five brothers-in-law; and parents-in-law.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth--
You shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*
