Theresa was born to John Sr. and Monica (nee Kosokowsky) Brecht at home on their farm nine miles north of Viscount, SK. She grew up there and attended Lucasville and Auckland rural schools. In 1956, Theresa moved to Humboldt and began a banking career at the Bank of Nova Scotia. On October 12, 1957, she married David "Dave" Klashinsky in St. John's Country Church, which was located close to the Brecht farm. Following their wedding, Theresa and Dave moved to Saskatoon. During that time, Theresa was able to transfer to the Eighth Street and Clarence Avenue branch of Scotia Bank. They resided in Saskatoon for three years and then returned to Humboldt. In September 1960, Theresa began her banking career with CIBC. In 1962, Theresa and Dave's son Dean was born, and in July 1965, their daughter Debra was born. Theresa was a loving wife and mother, and truly enjoyed domestic chores, especially cooking, baking and gardening. A hard-working and ambitious lady, she also continued working at the bank until 1993, when she retired. A community-minded person, Theresa was a member of the Futuristic Industries board, and also helped with the clients with various activities, especially bowling, a sport she loved herself. Throughout their life, Theresa and Dave travelled extensively throughout the world and spent many winters in Arizona. They also shared a passion for music, and had their own little band. They entertained in innumerable functions and for a variety of occasions all around Humboldt and area, and in Arizona during their vacations there.

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*
