Dawn, the eldest of seven children, was born on January 1, 1925, to Arnold and Isabella (nee Lively) Matchett in Kirkland Lake, ON. In 1940, she married Dan McEachern. Six children were born to them, Margaret, Dan, John, Joan, Frank and Rod. Following Dan's death, in 1956 Dawn married Angus MacDonell. A son, Allan, was born to them. Over the years, Dawn enjoyed baking, sewing and knitting, and was a fierce competitor at cribbage and Trivial Pursuit. She also travelled a lot and lived in many places in Canada, the United States, and Peru. Dawn and Angus loved getting away from the Saskatchewan cold and spent six winters in Yuma, Arizona. Of great joy to Dawn was spending time with her grandchildren, keeping track of their activities, and attending their various events.

Dawn will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by five children:

Margaret (Syl) Stadnichuk of Guernsey; Dan (Lynn) McEachern of Ottawa, ON; John (Shelly) McEachern of St. Anne, MB; Rod (Debbie) McEachern of Barker, NY; and Allan (Sherry) MacDonell of Swift Current, SK; 19 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren, and nine great-great-grandchildren; two sisters: Inez Culpán of Windsor, ON; and Marilyn Cardinal of Lynden, ON; and by numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her first husband, Dan McEachern; second husband, Angus MacDonell; daughter, Joan Theriault; son, Frank McEachern; four brothers: Frank Matchett, Jack Matchett, George Matchett, and Ronald "Butch" Matchett; and by one niece, Diane Matchett.
