Michael was born on May 1, 1985 to Neil and Joan (Weiman) Manderscheid in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. He grew up and went to school in Bruno, Saskatchewan and was living on his own in Saskatoon. He worked as an Appliance Specialist at the Home Depot where he thoroughly enjoyed talking to all of his customers! He always made the time to stop and talk to others. Michael was known as an easy-going, cheerful, considerate and fun loving guy. He always had a big smile on his face and could crack a joke despite any circumstances. Through all of his struggles, his perseverance allowed him to fight right until the end. In his modest manner, he made a lot of people think twice and made everyone around him a better person. Michael had many passions but at the top of his list was his enthusiasm for cars (driving his 1970 Plymouth 340 Duster) and playing sledge-hockey. He also loved playing with his niece, collecting hockey cards, just listening to tunes, and could always find a deal on ebay. Michael enjoyed hunting, fishing, watching all sports and wrestling, playing card games with his grandma and was his brother and sister-in-law's number one broomball fan. Michael was a bright light that touched so many people's lives... more than he will ever know! He was a much loved son, brother, uncle, grandson, nephew, cousin, friend and co-worker.

Michael will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his parents Neil and Joan Manderscheid; his brother Ian Manderscheid; sister-in-law Carmen (Hoffman) Manderscheid; and niece Kadence Manderscheid. He also leaves his paternal grandparents, Loretta and Andy Manderscheid; and his maternal grandmother, Corrine Weiman. He is also survived by his aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Michael was predeceased by his maternal grandfather, Lawrence Weiman; and aunt Sharon (Schulte) Manderscheid.

I'M SPECIAL (A poster from Michael's room)

I'm special. In all the world there's nobody like me.

Since the beginning of time, there has never been another person like me. Nobody has my smile. Nobody has my eyes, my nose, my hair, my voice. I'm special.

No one can be found who has my handwriting.

Nobody anywhere has my tastes - for food or music or art. No one sees things just as I do.

In all of time there's been no one who laughs like me, no one who cries like me. And what makes me laugh and cry will never provoke identical laughter and tears from anybody else, ever.

No one reacts to any situation just as I would react. I'm special.

I'm the only one in all of creation who has my set of abilities. Oh, there will always be somebody who is better at one of the things I'm good at, but no one in the universe can reach the quality of my combination of talents, ideas, abilities and feelings. Like a room full of musical instruments, some may excel alone, but none can match the symphony sounds when all are played together. I'm a symphony.

Through all of eternity no one will ever look, talk, walk, think or do like me. I'm special. I'm rare.

And in rarity there is great value.

Because of my great rare value, I need not attempt to imitate others. I will accept - yes, celebrate - my differences.

I'm special. And I'm beginning to realize it's no accident that I'm special. I'm beginning to see that God made me special for a very special purpose. He must have a job for me that no one else can do as well as I. Out of all the billions of applicants only one is qualified, only one has the combination of what it takes.

That one is me. Because ... I'm special.
