*Though Norma's smile is gone forever,
And her hand we cannot touch,
We have so many memories,
Of the one we love so much.
Her memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part,
God has her in His keeping;
We have her in our hearts.*

Norma was born in Watson, SK, to Phyllis and Roald Amundson. She was the second youngest of six children—three girls and three boys. Her early years were spent in Naicam, SK, then on to Melfort, SK. Norma then moved to Regina, SK to further her education as a nurse. Following this, her life took her to British Columbia where she worked at an injury re-hab hospital for four to five years. She spent time in Germany, British Columbia, New Brunswick and finally returned to Saskatchewan. Norma's accomplishments were many: she was the mother of two daughters, Tracey and Nicole. She taught herself to play the piano, sew, knit and created several beautiful tapestries. Norma obtained her class 1A driver's license and drove truck throughout Canada and the United States. Then, in 2006, Norma met Michael Pastor, which led into a very heart-warming marriage in 2011. The years leading up to and after, were full of everything she wanted to do with her husband at her side. Norma volunteered at the Salvation Army in Saskatoon, at the Humboldt and Area Antique Vintage Club, and was a member of the German Heritage Society in Humboldt for a time.

Norma Pastor passed away suddenly in intensive care at Royal University Hospital in Saskatoon, SK, on December 30, 2014, with her husband and family members at her side. As she has joined her mom and dad and special uncle Ford, she will be lovingly remembered and missed by her husband Michael and his daughter Shana (Keith) Marsh, grandchildren Samuel and Emily, and his son Chris (Kayla); her daughters Tracey, granddaughter Rachelle (Scott), and daughter Nicole (Fabian), granddaughter Becky; her sisters Helen (Jack) and Shirley, her brothers Doug (Darlene), Lea (Carleen), Neal (Merna); all her nieces and nephews; Michael's sisters JoAnne (Murray), Karen, Debbie (Murray), sister-in-law Brenda; her many friends that she and Mike had made together; and her two loving little dogs Molly and Hurley.
