Kelly's final message for family and friends was, simply,

"ADIOS!"

Kelly was born and raised near Annaheim, where he received his education. After graduating from high school, he worked at various jobs before attending SIAST in Moose Jaw. Kelly then worked in Calgary for 10 years before moving to Regina to work and be with his beloved Roughriders. For the past 10 years, Kelly worked for Sasktel in Network Operations where he formed many close friendships. In 2004, he was diagnosed with Transverse Myelitis for which he spent months in the Wascana Rehabilitation Center. In March of 2014, he was diagnosed with cancer.

Kelly was predeceased by his father, Alvin in 2006. He is survived by his mother, Lillian (Sarauer) Ramler; five siblings: Leon Ramler (Corinne) and family Amy, Aaron (Donna) and children Connor and Evyn, and Andrew (Christina); Ken Ramler and family, Jordan, Geoff, and Shelbi Touhey (Mike); Don Ramler (Joan) and family, Jay and Carter; Gwen Doepker (Lionel) and family, Evan (Shawna) and children Brooklyn and Joshua, Grant (Christina) and daughter Bree, and Brad (Bobbyjo) and children Daryl and Ryder; and Cindy Ramler; special cousin and close friends Owen and Donna Sarauer, as well as many uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

HE IS GONE

*You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
You can remember him and only that he is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what he would want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

Farewell My Friends

It was beautiful as long as it lasted
The journey of my life.
I have no regrets whatsoever
Save the pain I'll leave behind.
Those dear hearts who love and care ...
and the strings pulling at the heart and soul ...
The strong arms that held me up
When my own strength let me down.
At every turning of my life
I came across good friends,
Friends who stood by me,
Even when the time raced me by.
Farewell, farewell, my friends
I smile and bid you goodbye.
No, shed no tears for I need them not all I need is your smile.
If you feel sad do think of me
For that's what I'll like when you live in the hearts
Of those you love, remember then
You never die.

Gitanjali Gfci, inspirational poet (1961-1977)
