Alois was born and raised on the family farm in the Englefeld district and attended Greenside School. On August 15, 1950, Alois married Evelyn Bodnard in Englefeld and they worked together on the farm. Alois continued to live on the farm until 2012. They travelled to various destinations within Canada and the United States and also enjoyed going on RV trips and fishing trips within the province. Alois enjoyed fishing, working in his shop, and working with metal. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

Alois will be lovingly remembered by his children:

Carol (Daryl) Nordick of Saskatoon and family, Sean Nordick and Kendra (Adam) Dumont; Randy (Bernie) Schwartz of Kindersley and family, Michelle (Travis) Weber and children, Ronin and Samantha, Steven (Kelli) Schwartz and children, James, Maggie and Miles; Lyle (Michele) Schwartz of Humboldt and family, Lindsey (Jason) Kruger and sons, Kaiden and Lincoln, Kayla (Kyle) Bernesky, Braeden Schwartz; Daryl (Marianne) Schwartz of Saskatoon and family, Jacob (Laura) Schwartz, Benjamin (Kristi) Schwartz, Caleb Schwartz; Kelvin (Bonnie) Schwartz of Saskatoon and family, Devin and Logan Schwartz; and two sisters: Marie (Norman) Painter of Humboldt, and Louise Knafelc of Watson. He was predeceased by his wife, Evelyn (nee Bodnard) Schwartz; his parents, Jacob and Susan (nee Raskob) Schwartz; two sisters: Helen Zimmer and Clara (in infancy); and four brothers: Lawrence, Ray, Art and Wilfred.

*Some people touch our lives in everything they do
and leave us changed
long after they have gone.
The gifts they gave us
can become a part of who we are--- a legacy of beauty
that lives on.*

*A beautiful life
has been lived
upon the earth.
We are richer
for having known such joy.*

APPRECIATION
The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed,
and for your attendance at the funeral service.
