Clayton was born to Brian and Elaine (nee Hollman) Stushnoff. He was raised in Watson but he lived in Muenster. He attended school in Watson and Englefeld. He enjoyed going quadding with his dad. He also enjoyed collecting John Deere toys and working on big machinery. He also liked spending time with his nephew Tanner.

They Say There Is A Reason

*They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason,
Will change the way I feel,
For no-one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No-one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried,
We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.*

Author : Unknown

Clayton leaves behind his mom and dad, Elaine and Brian Stushnoff; sisters, Janice (Alex) Carroll and their son Tanner; Nicole (Frank) Suek; and two more new babies; his grandmother, Francis Stushnoff of Watson and his grandfather, Ed Hollman of Elstow, SK; all of his aunts, uncles and cousins; and all of his friends. He was predeceased by his grandmother, Lorraine Hollman and grandfather, Nick Stushnoff.
